Trim Your Mind to Perfection - With Memrionics

Hello,

This letter is designed to share the best-kept secret of Seminars. Its miraculous results prevent embarrassing mental situations yet it's been used by the Top Fortune 500 companies worldwide as an all-rounded beneficial course to solve virtually all of their people problems. Read on because it becomes even more fascinating.

Imagine . Walking into a room with many people --- others would be insecure - but a MEMRIONICS Graduate would cheerfully walk up to them saying, "Hi! I'm Peter, What's your name?" - Knowing with confidence that he will remember, Spectacular.

Imagine . Concentrating so well you cut valuable time off your sports game or job projects. Impressive

Imagine . Walking up to a podium and speaking to a group of over 100 people without being nervous.

Imagine . Having so much personality and charisma that others flock to you like a magnet. "-~-_Imagine . No worries about what people think of you. Remarkable,

Imagine . Being the centre of attention as people listen to your new jokes and stories.

Imagine . People listening with respect to the notable points you're making in your presentation

Imagine ■ Your pride upon overhearing your business associates telling someone else to ask you for the information because you don't forget. Very professional.

Imagine . Learning a foreign language in less than one third the normal time.

DYNAMIC

MEMRIONICS teaches Mental Efficiency, much, much more than just Memory Skills. MEMRIONICS draws the BEST out of you, helping you to advance in your career, giving you the Creativity to recognize opportunity, the Mental Organisation to implement your plans, and the Mental Discipline to follow through on your goals. MEMRIONICS also gives you the capacity to keep abreast of new knowledge in your field, for qualifying, recertification or promotional examinations. It gives you the confidence, the assertiveness, the ability to think for yourself, to use your Initiative, to be a Leader, to get the job done. It remotivates people, developing Team work.

At MEMRIONICS, we're proud because these are just some of the situations our Graduates have shared with us - And' it gets better with use. We know we've been teaching our special skill for over 25 years and people love it. Yes, we have people coming to us years later saying, "If only I'd done this when I first heard about it, I would have saved myself many embarrassing situations."

And! It's so easy to learn MEMRIONICS even though the results are dramatic. What do you think your boss, friends and family will think of you when they witness you memorizing a list of 30 or even 100 unassociated words, when beforehand you couldn't even remember a list of 3 items? Amazing? You're right. Or what about remembering a 20, 50 or 100 digit number? - When a 7 digit phone number was a problem before. At this stage, you're probably thinking that even you don't believe you can do it. That's not surprising because most atten - dees start the course not believing they can ever learn what they've witnessed. That doubt is quickly replaced with solid evidence when you see yourself and fellow classmates doing the very same examples.

In today's business world, there are so many constant changes with so many things to observe and remember, any person who has not trained their Mind finds himself under heavy stress and pressure. This stress materializes itself in many ways, such as physical aches and pains, insomnia, distressing situations, dissatisfaction, a feeling of "going nowhere", and an inward fear that you just might not be able to handle things effectively.

We have found that when a person knows that he knows that his Mental Efficiency is second to none, the confidence that this creates gives the person the freedom to approach the task without feeling pressure. Business requires creativity and concentration in order to perform efficiently. Yet the average person's perception of concentration is that it takes steel-willed discipline, and whilst dealing with their daily activities, they fight the problem rather than solve it. By fight we mean tackle it as if on a football field, rather than approach it using their full creative power in its best form. The highest form of concentration and creativity are interrelated and do not come from a determined will-power exercise. A person must learn to relax and let their true creative potential go to work. They also need to concentrate to focus that creative skill to the job at hand. Effective problem-solving with creative activity is almost therapeutic to the Professional rather than stressful. An important part of our MEMRIONICS Mental Efficiency training is to teach controlled relaxation to achieve this end result.

Two of the most frequent comments we hear at the end of the Seminar are: "This is so much better than we thought. It is so comprehensive", and - "How come we didn't do this before, we would have saved money and time!" Even a Xerox Executive said: "We should have been taught this before our training. We would have really grasped our material."

MEMRIONICS Mental Efficiency Seminar trains you to be so aware and mentally alert that you're far ahead of your competition. MEMRIONICS is like smorgasbord --- whatever you're looking for, it's all there in one Seminar. Some of our attendees come along for a brilliant memory, others come to get rid of insomnia, headaches or stress, others to improve their self image and self-confidence, others to learn concentration or clear thinking, others to increase their reading skills.

MEMRIONICS Graduates report an immediate increase in their self-confidence. They know that they can remember whatever they wish, such as Names and Faces, Numbers, Business Data, Sports, Medical, Legal, Clients' phone numbers and other human relations aspects -- in fact, they learn how to let their Mind work for them instead of against them. Without MEMRIONICS, it's like a man trying to pull an elephant uphill!

MEMRIONICS is a practical course that's applicable to all areas of your life. It means getting the job done and in little time. MEMRIONICS Graduates leave the Course having developed:
